Hundred Attend Program In Veterans' Memorial Building

Niles Chamber of Commerce held its annual banquet in the new $60,000 Veterans' Memorial building, Tuesday night. President Lew E. Smith was the toastmaster. The evening's program was opened with one of the best dinners ever served at such an affair. It was prepared and served by the Niles Parent Teachers Association under the direction of Mrs. Harvey Braun. Tinega group of Camp Fire Girls acted as waitresses.

One hundred men were present at the banquet, which was acclaimed the best ever given by the Chamber of Commerce. Representatives from the Pleasanton, Centerville, San Leandro, and Oakland Chambers of Commerce were in attendance.

Music was furnished by Campos' Orchestra. Clever entertainment was provided by the Happy Chappies of radio station KFI.

Daniel W. Hone, of San Francisco, was the speaker of the evening. He spoke on "The Evolutionary Progress of Science and Engineering" which was very interesting, although it was cut short because of the lateness of the hour. Honorable Ralph V. Burke, industrial agent of Southern Pacific company; F. V. Jones, vice-president of the chamber, Harvey Braun, past-president; Lew Galbraith, of the Pacific Gas and Electric company; Captain Modele, of the Houlihan Advertising company, Oakland; J. H. DECOTO GIRL WINS COUNTY SPELLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Lola Luna, of Decoto, won the Alameda County Spelling Contest, which was held at Hayward Union High school. She will go to Sacramento to compete with the other county contestants for the State championship. The date for this event has not been settled.

The county contest was held on Monday afternoon, May 26. Lola Luna and Miss G. I. Knoles represented Washington Union High school. There were eight grammar schools competing but only one high school was present, being the Washington Union High school; so that Lola Luna won the high school championship by default. Superintendent David E. Martin was in charge of the contest.

An elimination contest was held at the high school recently at which time Lola Luna won with only one word misspelled. Those who tried out were Sophie Swanson, Lola Luna, Lucille Rose, Jewell Amaral, Annie Bettencourt, Tom Kitachima and James Hirabayshi and Hajime Tsuromaoto.

The county spelling championship was also won last year by Josephine Humphrey of Washington Union High School. She failed to win at the fair held in Sacramento last fall.

Burglar Enters Barber Shop Sunday Night

A robbery was committed in the Maddux Barber shop, Sunday night at 9 o'clock. The burglar entered by breaking open a screen and jumping down to the floor. He ransacked the drawers, but succeeded in escaping with only a small amount of money.

Mrs. Maddux heard the offender and rushed to the store just as the burglar slammed the door and fled.

BARBECUE

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lagrave have invited a number of friends in this community to attend their annual barbecue given on their ranch near Livermore, Sunday.

RESOLUTION PASSED KEEPS BUS SERVICE

Public Meeting of the Taxpayers Held in Auditorium

At the meeting of the high school board held in the auditorium last Wednesday evening, a resolution was made by James Whipple that the bus service should be continued and it was passed.

There were approximately one hundred people that attended this open meeting. Among those present to give speeches were Howard Chadbourne, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stevenson and Thomas Powers. Reverend James McElhinney reported for the Centerville Chamber of Commerce, which unanimously voted in favor of the retention of the busses. F. V. Jones made a similar report for the Niles Chamber of Commerce.

All of the trustees spoke in regard to the question which has aroused considerable discussion among the people of the township.

At a recent board meeting a motion was made by A. A. Bettencourt, of Alviso, and seconded by Fred Dusterberry, of Centerville, to discontinue the five busses for the next year. A substitute motion was made by F. V. Jones with the consent of Bettencourt that the continuing or discontinuing of the busses be laid on the table until the next regular meeting and the decision be made at that time.

It was decided that an open meeting would be held to learn the opinion of the taxpayers of Washington Township, which occurred last Wednesday night.

Bettencourt said that he took this unfavorable position because the people had been asking for a lower tax and others had criticised the board for the way money was appropriated. At present nearly $8,000 a year is being spent for the operation and maintenance of the high school busses used to transport 350 students to and from their homes in the nine towns of the township.

Other questions that were brought up at the public meeting were those concerning economy in Washington Union High School. It was shown by the trustees, however, that the money for the gymnasium was already in the treasury and that a fifteen cent tax reduction was being discussed for next year.

Further, it was shown that Washington has more pupils per teacher than any other nearby school of its size.

A comparison of tax rates between Hayward and Washington disclosed that while they have been practically the same, Washington furnishes transportation and has paid in full for buildings erected, while Hayward does not furnish transportation, and has a bond of indebtedness of $374,000,000.

Last year the tax was 8 cents less per hundred than Hayward's.

Many are relieved to know that this situation has been cleared up and the bus service is insured in the future.

Those on the present board of trustees are, Justus Overacker, president; James C. Whipple, secretary; Fred F. Dusterberry, A. A. Bettencourt and F. Vernon Jones.

VETERANS' MEMORIAL BUILDING DEDICATED ON DECORATION DAY

Concert, Parade, Exercises and Flag Raising On Program

"Memorial Day was the biggest red letter day in Niles in recent years," said Supervisor Ralph Richmond at the dedication exercises of the Veterans' Memorial building of Washington township, Friday afternoon. Hundreds of people came to Niles to witness the dedication of this beautiful $60,000 building constructed on lots facing E and Second streets, donated by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shinn, of Niles.

The afternoon's program was opened by a half-hour band concert given by the Washington Township School band directed by John E. Kimber. Those players present made a fine appearance with their white uniforms, orange and black rooters caps and emblems, and orange neckties. Selections played during this outdoor concert on the lawn of the Grammar school were: "Star Spangled Banner," "The Thunderer," by Sousa, "Heroes' March" by Schubert, "American Patrol" by Meacham, and "Stars and Stripes Forever" by Sousa.

Street Parade.

Shortly after the concert, the parade started moving in line of march. It was headed by the color guard, followed by the American Legion band from Hayward. The band players wore red and blue uniforms, and played several lively marches. Following the band were two lines of colors and American Legion flags from Washington township, Hayward, San Leandro, Oakland and Berkeley posts. Boy scouts from over the township came next in the parade. After which came the Tinega group of Camp Fire Girls. The Berkeley Bugle and Drum corps from the Legion post there were without doubt the snappiest part of the parade. The men wore blue uniforms trimmed in yellow and brass helmets which shown like gold in the bright afternoon's sun. Supervisor Richmond, accompanied by Colonel H. G. Mathewson, drove his automobile in the parade. Following him were all of the Washington Township American Legion members marching as they did twelve years ago. They concluded the parade which marched up Second street

MURPHY & BRISCGE STORE TO HAVE STUCCO FRONT

Another new store front is being constructed to make Main street of Niles more attractive. Murphy and Briscoe's General Merchandise store is having a new cement front constructed by a local contractor.

The old time porch was razed last week. Cement and stucco finish were applied to the front this week. It will harmonize with the other buildings in the block, and will add a fine appearance to the store.

Hand-made mission tiles are to be laid on the roof that tops the front. Glazed tile is to be placed below the new plate glass show windows. The old window backgrounds are to be replaced with glass panels similar to those in Scott's shoe store.

When completed the job will make the store look as if it were recently built.

Niles Graduates Given Dinner Party

Mrs. L. J. Trinchero entertained the graduating class of the Niles Grammar School at her home, Monday night. Twenty-eight were present at this happy party. Mrs. Trinchero's daughter is one of the members of the graduating class.

The evening was opened with a full course dinner which made a great appeal to all of the hungry boys and girls. Following the dinner, games were played. Several prizes were awarded the winners.

All of the pupils greatly appreciated this treat of Mr. and Mrs. Trinchero.

Property Owners Asked To Put in Curbings

There are a few property owners in Niles who have not yet contracted for curbing fronting their property. They may have details completed for them by seeing Roadmaster Joe Gomes.

Mr. Gomes will notify the contractor doing this work, and the agent of the firm will see the property owner and arrange to complete the curbing at once.

Supervisor Ralph V. Richmond Delivers Dedicatory Address

The dedicatory address delivered by Supervisor Richmond at the Veterans' Memorial Building, Friday afternoon was in part:

"We have gathered here today to dedicate this Memorial Building, which was erected by the citizens of Alameda county as a tribute to those of Washington Township who enlisted in the great World War, ready to make the supreme sacrifice that the world might be safe for democracy and in grateful recognition of the services of all those who did their "bit" in any of the wars in which our nation has been engaged.

"Although no tangible monuments were erected to those who participated in the earlier wars of our country that the precept of a great nation might be upheld, their valorous deeds and their great sacrifices have lived on in the hearts of the American people, and it is a pleasure to tell them that they may also participate in the use of this memorial.

"We do not need the fact of our 'Historian' to tell us that our sons and daughters who participated in the World War enjoy an enviable record. There were more than 300 boys left this district; four were killed in action and six died while in service.

"You are, no doubt, impressed with the beauty of the design of this memorial and the patriotic purpose for which it is intended, but it is, nevertheless, fitting that we should make a careful check of the uses to which this building will be put, not only that we may justify its use but that we may be better assured that it will in truth, be dedicated to the highest ideals.

"Naturally, this building will be the rallying place for the boys of Washington Township. It is also dedicated to the moulding of enlightened public opinion and directing all energies to the strengthening of our Republic; of lending our aid to the perfecting of its functions, with always in the background, that beautiful ideal of universal peace.

"We can all remember back to 1917 when our boys marched val-

EDITORIAL COMMENT

WHO PAYS THE BILL?

The Literary Digest's prohibition poll of 4,806,464 votes is awakening something more than interest. It has lighted within the minds of the thoughtful the flame of suspicion—a suspicion that is rapidly crystalizing into a feeling of certainty, that the result of the poll was determined beforehand by the proponents of modification which that magazine favors so cleverly that the average reader thinks the opinion expressed is the viewpoint of other magazines and papers, rather than a partisan view of its own.

Let us tear away the hypocritical veneer of impartiality and so-called disinterested opinion. A poll of 4,806,464 votes means the use of 9,612,928 two-cent stamps; one stamp to carry the query to the voter and two cents for return postage. That amounts to the trifling sum of $192,258.56. The printing of the sample ballots will run around $20,000. Added to this the expense of sending advance news sheets to every newspaper in the country. Many of these have been sent out. The cost of this will amount to $10,000 or $15,000 more.

Who pays the bill?

Not the increased sales of the Literary Digest. One does not need to read that publication to get the returns. This magazine, bursting itself with generosity toward its competitors, offered them each week, a "scoop" on its own news, procured at the cost of one-half million dollars.

The Literary Digest has never cleared, according to expert opinion, one-fifth of the amount that that publication is so freely spending to ascertain the drift of public thought politically.

The Register charges nothing. It is unnecessary to accuse.

The mind of the average American is clear and penetrating. With few exceptions, political moves can be analyzed and proper deductions made. Generosity is a wonderful thing. Community spirit or national interest is something for youth to copy; those who personify these splendid principles are persons to be idolized.

If the reader believes that the Literary Digest is facing a deficit of several hundred thousand dollars that you and we may know by the "strictly disinterested and honestly-conducted poll" that the nation is ready to again become a partner in the booze business; that the reflection of opinion in America is that prohibition is a failure and more liquor is consumed than in pre-prohibition days—yes if the reader is gullible enough to believe, after witnessing the recent crushing defeat of Smith running on a personally constructed wet platform—if after reading of the riot of every wet candidate in the last primaries, that reader still believes that the Literary Digests poll on the liquor question is fair and means anything at all to students of morals and economics, then that person is very simple minded, indeed.

If one desires to have saloons back, it is but natural that he read in the book of destiny the approval of that backward step—a step of which the world occasionally is guilty.

But founded upon impartial opinion and common sense, prohibition is here for many years to come. Sensible men will accept this fact—a precaution made necessary by the mechanical age in which we live—but preverse people will for those same years fulminate against that stone wall, the Eighteenth Amendment to the federal constitution—in vain!

IT WAS A GLORIOUS AFFAIR

Niles Chamber of Commerce annual banquet, held in American Legion Memorial Hall, Tuesday evening, was one of the most successful affairs of its kind in South Alameda county. It reflected great credit on President L. E. Smith of that body, and his official family, and the rank and file of the organization share also in general approbation.

The visitors, guests of the chamber, will spread the word throughout the bay district of the re-generation of Niles, its splendid hospitality, its bright future—the remarkable commercial and civic strides of the past year.

Play Cast Spends Day At Carmel-by-the-Sea

The play cast of "In a Mission Garden" and several other Washingtonians went on a trip to Carmel, on Memorial Day, May 30, to see the work of the Mission Fathers at Carmel Mission.

The group was shown through the Mission by a guide. They saw the grave of Father Junipero Serra and also many old time relics.

In the morning they met in front of the Mission, and after a lunch on the beach, some went to swim, while others watched.

After leaving Carmel, some enjoyed a movie at San Jose, and others left for home.

Today's Scripture LESSON

By Rev. John R. Stevenson

As thy days, so shall thy strength be.—Deut. xxxiii. 25.

Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.—Matt. vi. 34.

Oh, ask not thou, How shall I bear
The burden of tomorrow?
Sufficient for today, its care,
Its evil and its sorrow;
God emparteth by the way
Strength sufficient for the day.

4800 TELEPHONE BOOKS DELIVERED IN THE DISTRICT

Four thousand eight hundred copies of the southern Alameda county telephone books were delivered last week by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. This was an increase of 500 over the last issue. These directories contain only the numbers of telephones in Alameda county exclusive of Oakland, Berkeley, San Leandro, and Alameda.

Northern California's annual edition of nearly 1,670,000 copies is 5 per cent of the 35,000,000 Bell System directories published annually in the United States. It is over one-third of the total copies distributed in the five Pacific Coast states.

If all twenty Northern California books were published in this June edition as one, that one book would have nearly 5000 pages of varying size.

Women are welcoming the all-electric kitchen

Electricity heats water for 1/2 to 1/3 cent per gallon

WOMEN appreciate the cleanliness and the convenience of the all-electric kitchen. These are two reasons why almost every one of our customers today who is selecting an electric range is also selecting an automatic electric water heater.

Heating water with electricity is practical. Many electric water heaters installed for P. G. and E. customers, over 10 years ago, are still supplying dependable hot water service.

Another reason why women like the automatic electric water heater is that it offers flexibility in operation—

1. You may operate the heater manually — Turn the switch and heat the quantity of water desired and then turn the switch off. This is the most economical method.

2. You may turn the switch on in the morning and leave the heater operate automatically during the day and then turn the switch off for the afternoon or evening.

3. You may leave the switch on all the time and enjoy hot water 100% automatically — day and night. You'll have plenty of hot water at the turn of the faucet. Still, you will never have to watch the heater.

Automatic electric water heaters come complete with insulated storage tank. Or if you like, you can obtain the automatic heater without the tank and attach the heater to your present tank.

Two Local Students Entered State Contest

On May 24, Edward Bimemiller and Agatha Willis, representing Washington Union High School, went to the University of California to compete in the Eleventh Annual Shakespeare contest, which is a statewide contest.

Neither Edward nor Agatha placed in the finals but they were very enthusiastic about the contest.

The trials were held in the morning, and in the afternoon final tryouts were held in the Greek Theatre. Acts from Shakespeare's plays were given by the Oakland students as one part of the program.

Sophie Swanson accompanied Agatha, and R. M. Moore chaperoned the group.

CLARA BOW PLAYS IN NAVY PICTURE AT OAKLAND SHOW

She had a sweetheart on every ship but there weren't enough ships in the fleet. That's the Clara Bow you'll meet in "True to the Navy," her latest nautical romance, opening Friday, June 6, at the Fox Oakland theatre.

The red-headed star, who has whirled through a whole series of flaming "It" pictures to the delight of her fans, now shows what she can do in the navy. Many considered "The Fleet's In" her most charming romance. But for comedy, love interest and plot quality, "True to the Navy" tops them all.

Fanchon and Marco bring cheerful news with their "Box O' Candy Idea" on the stage. A picked group of Sunkist Beauties who include candy in their regular diet will prove that confections are good for the figure. Against a lavish setting of bonbons, chocolates and candy canes moves this clever revue, Jones and Hull, headlining comedians, are a pair of nuts with an all-laughing line; Frank Hamilton, comic songster, offers novelty numbers, and Reeves and Leu show "doll dancing done differently."

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Duffy, Patty Duffy and Estelle Martenstein had a three day camping party at Paradise Park, Santa Cruz mountains.

Mrs. Frank Brown, of Newark, gave an interesting reading. Part of the high school orchestra was present to give the women a short program.

"THE NEW MOON" OPERETTA PLAYS AT GRAND LAKE

"The New Moon," Sigmund Romberg's glittering and gorgeous operetta starring Perry Askam, and interpreted by a cast of one hundred singers and dancers, will open at the Fox Grand Lake theatre, Oakland, June 12, for a three nights' run.

The excellence of the roadshow, acclaimed by critics the finest of its kind, determined the temporary change in policy of the Fox Grand Lake theatre.

Not since Sigmund Romberg started the vogue for brilliant operettas in America with his "Student Prince," five years ago, has a musical play been produced that so ingeniously combines all the fine elements of stage entertainment as does "The New Moon." Romberg, by the way, will be remembered for his "The Desert Song," with Perry Askam singing the lead in it.

A clever story, lilting music, colorful scenery and costumes, and a magnificent cast of seasoned musical comedy favorites promise much for the entertainment value of "The New Moon," which is just closing a successful engagement at the Curran theatre.

Josephine Houston will sing the prima donna role. The chorus, an important feature, comprises forty carefully selected male voices and two dozen feminine voices.

IT TAKES ALL THESE 5 QUALITIES TO MAKE GOOD GASOLINE

ASSOCIATED GASOLINE IS Equi-fractionated for

1 STARTING
2 PICK-UP
3 POWER
4 SPEED
5 MILEAGE

HERE is a gasoline that really possesses all the qualities for plus-performance that you demand. For Associated Gasoline is Equi-fractionated!

No one quality alone makes good gasoline. This is why.

In refining, gasoline fractions in vapor form are taken off at various temperatures within a scientifically-determined boiling range.

Lighter fractions—at low boiling point—are the ones that assure quick starting and ready pick-up. They are highly volatile. They ignite at once. But, equally-important heavier fractions — at higher boiling point—are the ones that assure power, speed and long mileage. They burn completely away in your motor, but they burn more slowly.

Thus, Equi-fractionated means that you'll find in Associated Gasoline all these vital properties assembled in correct proportion. Accept this assurance of getting all that your motor requires for finest performance.

Ask the Associated Serviceman at any red, green and cream station or garage about this motor fuel of proper balance. Fill up, and test it out today. ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆

Night School Closed Until Next September

The Washington Union High School night school closed on May 15. Principal E. B. Hodges states that it will probably open next term on September 2.

Two men who have taken bookkeeping in this night school are now working in the Bank of Italy.

The night school was started five years ago with about two hundred and fifty pupils. The ages of the pupils varied from ten to eighty-two years. Many of them were unable to speak a single word of English while a few others were university students. There were about ten to twelve teachers at first but as the novelty wore off, the attendance decreased, so there was a decrease in teachers also.

Subjects which are taught in the night school are beginning English, electricity, public speaking, advanced millinery, mechanical drawing, Spanish, and commercial subjects. Textbooks are furnished with the deposit of one dollar by the pupil.

"No one is too old to start," said Mr. Hodges, "for night schools are for adults."

HIS STEP ON THE ATTIC STAIR

(By Judge William T. Davis, Pleasanton)

He'd toted a gun in the siege of Verdun,
He'd served with both the British and French;
He'd carried his kit, and was doing his bit
In the perils of crater and trench,
He had bled with the rest; he had weathered the test,
With the Legion at Lens and Champagne,
Now he's written to say; "I am sailing today,
I'm longing to see you again."

For the thrill of a raid was the sailing delayed;
Just another mad dash at the foe;
Just a farewell thrust, through the blinding dust
At the Hun in the trench below.
But the legend is old—it has often been told
Of the pitcher that went to the well;
And, true to the tale, went a note through the mail:
"He stayed—for a raid—and he fell."

The shadows are stealing around the house,
To herald the night with its gloom,
As the old folks dream by the fireside's gleam,
In their plain little "settin' room."
There's the organ and stool, and the Golden Rule
In the motto just over the door.
A wax flower wreath on the mantle beneath,
And a kitten asleep on the floor.

There's an old violin with a bow worn and thin,
And a gun with a broken stock.
Some roses once red, now withered and dead
In a vase by the drowsy clock.
And prized above all, hanging low on the wall,
Aglint in the backlog's flame,
Is the picture of him, their Baby Boy, Jim,
Smiling down from its gilded frame.

How silent they wait for the click of the gate;
And the grind of his buggy wheels,
And the neigh of his bay as he gallops away;
And the clank of his iron-shod heels.
How silent they long for the rollicking song,
And the lilt to his lady fair,
And his gentle "Good Noght," as he turned out the light;
And his step on the attic stair.

His overalls hang on a wooden peg,
On the wall of his attic room.
The lithographs dear to his boyish heart
Are shrouded by web and gloom.
There's a baseball bat, and his last year's hat,
And a sock with a missing toe,
A dog-eared grammar and broken slats
Of the days of long ago.

They are missing his chaff, and his care-free laugh,
And the touch of his calloused hand,
To his loved ones endeared; by his enemies feared
In the grapple of No Man's Land.
What they miss most of all is his cheery call,
And his lilt to his lady fair,
His gentle "Good Night," as he turns out the light,
And his step on the attic stair.

iantly away to foreign lands in order that the homes that they were leaving perhaps forever might be safeguarded. At that time our emotions were so stirred, no sacrifice would have been too great to do homage to these boys on their return. But not until 1921 did the California legislature make it possible for the building of Veterans' Memorials. This legislation was brought about primarily through the untiring efforts of the American Legion for the benefit of all ex-service men.

"It was not until October 20, 1927, that the first ray of light burst forth for a memorial building in Washington Township, because on that date the Board of Supervisors accepted a deed from Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shinn for a lot 100 x 150 with provisions that a building not less than $30,000 should be started not later than July, 1929. On July 2, 1929, bids were opened and contract was awarded to John E. Branaugh for $47,800. The building was completed and accepted by the board, March 25, 1930.

"As the official representative of the Board of Supervisors of Alameda county, I wish to publicly made this statement that it was through the efforts of the Building Committee, of which E. Dixon Bristow was chairman, F. V. Jones, a member of the Advisory Committee and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shinn that this Veterans' Memorial Building of Washington Township is now a reality.

"We dedicate this building to uphold and defend the constitution of the United States; we dedicate this building 'For God and Country' which is but another way of saying we have passed another mile stone on the road toward making children happy and guaranteeing that women can devote themselves to their families; that men can enjoy the fruits of peace and the prosperity which is possible only when good government prevails.

"This building is dedicated to the highest possible use and I am confident that the Veterans of Washington Township will always justify the confidence of the people of Alameda county.

"And now, by the authority invested in me by the Board of Supervisors of this county, I do hereby transfer to the Washington Township Veterans' Memorial Building Committee this magnificent memorial."

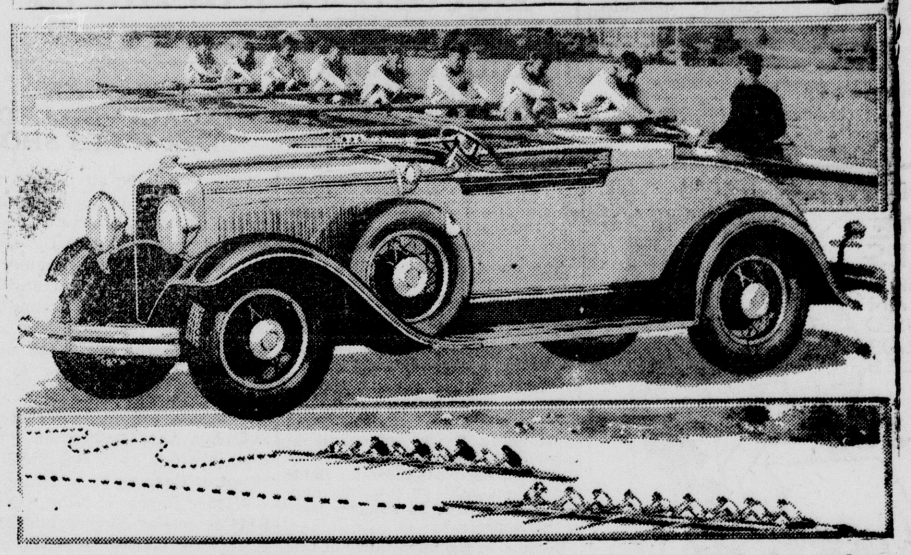
Rowing Crew Symbol of Straight-Eight Power



Eight oarsmen in a shell each doing an equal share of the work and thus keeping a straight course as shown by the dotted line is the symbol that has been chosen by Dodge Brothers to picture to the lay mind that in the new Dodge Eight-in-Line engine each cylinder does an equal share of the job of generating power. The zig-zag course illustrates what would result if men of unequal strength were to compose the crew of a shell. Similarly, if each cylinder in an engine does not produce an equal amount of power, the operation is rough and inefficient.

DODGE BROTHERS SCRAP ALL TRADE-IN AUTOMOBILES

J. E. Pashote of Newark Garage Now Has Agency

"Seventy million dollars will be California's share of the cost of automobile accidents in the United States last year, and a great deal of the blame for traffic accidents and injury can be placed at the door of drivers of obsolete cars whose faulty brakes and general decrepit condition was responsible for collisions," says J. E. Pashote, of the Newark Garage, Dodge dealers of Washington Township.

"There is a grave responsibility upon the motor car dealer who takes in trade a worn-out derelict and permits it to be re-sold to go back on the streets and continue to menace the lives of pedestrians and motorists alike. Such cars should be scrapped beyond repair so that no junk yard operator can ever fix them up and sell them for $40 or $50 to some irresponsible person," according to Pashote.

"Dodge Brothers dealers throughout the United States have been enlisted in a war against this practice. Through financial co-operation by the Dodge factory with the dealer, he is enabled to offer the owner of such a car a very fair price for his derelict car on a trade for a new Dodge. Such cars are then destroyed before being sold as junk.

"The only other solution to this problem seems to be a tightening up of the licensing laws in each state so that it would be impossible to buy a set of plates for a car whose vintage was beyond a certain limit. The trouble with this plan is that it would be unfair to some owners who use their cars very little and keep them a long time in good condition.

"It is obviously impossible for the police to personally check all the automobiles on the highways, even though we have ordinances specifying what braking efficiency a car shall have, and how its headlights shall be adjusted. Put an individual behind the wheel of an up-to-date car with four-wheel brakes, all-steel body and other safety features as exemplified by Dodge, and something happens within himself which makes him more careful of his own car and of the safety of others."

and returned to the building by Main street.

Dedication Program

At 2:30 the dedication program of the Washington Township Veterans' Memorial building was opened by D. V. Carithers, commander of the post. An opening march was played by the Legion band from Hayward, followed by the "Star Spangled Banner," which was played for the advancing of the colors. The invocation was given by Lieutenant-Commander Francis Lee Albert, state chaplain.

Commander Carithers introduced Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shinn, donors of the lots, F. V. Jones, of Niles, Frank Dusterberry, of Centerville, and Wallace Ebright, of Sunol, and Louis Ruschin, of Newark, Supervisors Staats, Heyer and Richmond, Henry Meyers, county architect, who designed the building; Fred W. Petersen, county commissioner of buildings; several Spanish-American war veterans, and Major W. R. Mance, of the Masonic Home, and Henry Youngman, of Niles, Civil War veterans.

The honor of being the chairman of the occasion was bestowed upon E. Dixon Bristow, chairman of the building committee. A vocal solo, "Trees," accompanied on the piano by Henri Salz, was rendered by Mrs. J. A. Bunting.

A fitting Memorial Day address was delivered by Colonel H. G. Mathewson, secretary of the State Railroad commission. He complimented the government for sending the Gold Star mothers to France to pay tribute to their sons who gave their lives for an unselfish cause.

He said that one-half of the soldiers killed in the wars fought by the United States were lost because we were not prepared, and the youth of the land is ready to make sacrifices of devotion for the United States.

"We must now preach the ideas of peace and good will, if we hope to prevent war. It is up to us to teach others about peace. We are taught the lesson of war as 10,000,000 men were sacrificed not in vain. Under the Stars and Stripes standing for freedom, equality and justice, we shall continue to rear our children, who shall prevent another war," were his concluding remarks.

A piano solo was next rendered by Henri E. Salz, of Centerville.

Honorable Ralph V. Richmond, supervisor of the first district of Alameda county, gave the dedicatory address, which is given in another column. After the introduction had been given, Lieutenant-Commander Albert gave the prayer. E. Dixon Bristow accepted the building on behalf of the Washington Township Post No. 195 of the American Legion.

The program was concluded by the singing of "America" by the audience.

Flag Raising.

The flag-raising ceremony in the court was conducted by Roland Bendel, assisted by a squad of Boy Scouts, Eagle Scout Louis Ruschin, Jr., and Field Executive Henry Hopkins. Major Mance and Henry Youngman, Civil war veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, raised the American flag, while colors were played by a bugler.

For the remainder of the afternoon, the building was thrown open for inspection by hundreds of people.

DECOTO CHAMBER HAS IMPORTANT MEETING OF YEAR

The Decoto Chamber of Commerce held one of its most important meetings Tuesday evening, with a record of attendance present. Several matters were thoroughly discussed and disposed of.

The guest speaker of the evening was Harry L. Hopkins, field scout executive of the Boy Scouts. Mr. Hopkins described in detail just what channels scout moneys are distributed into, and stressed the plans to establish a scout camp in Crow canyon.

Fire Chief R. Bendel pointed out that with summer and dry fields approaching, it was of paramount importance that everyone burn or otherwise clear all dried up fields and vacant lots. In this way only can serious fires be avoided later in the summer.

Because of the importance of this meeting, Decoto was unable to be present at the Niles Chamber of Commerce banquet of that evening in the Veterans' Memorial building..

Miss Helga Johnson, community worker in this district, attended the Standard Leadership Training school in Oakland, Monday night.

"RIO RITA" AND "INGAGI" BILLED FOR NILES SHOW

"Rio Rita," the all talking and singing picture claimed by many as one of the best pictures of the year, is to be shown on the silver screen of the Niles Theater, tonight and tomorrow night. As this picture is so outstanding the manager has extended its run here. Many who saw it last night are telling their friends to be sure to see it.

A double bill is scheduled for Saturday, Ann Harding in "Her Private Affair," and Bob Steele in "Trail of Courage."

Warner Baxter in "The Arizona Kid" is coming Sunday and Monday. This picture is better than "In Old Arizona" because of its perfect sound and dialogue—better because of its more seasoned cast—better because of its story. You will thrill at the music, glamor, and actors.

"Ingagi," wild African picture of gorillas, the most talked of picture of the year, will be shown next Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.
